

UnDP Customize Thresholds for Single Objects

---

Currently is posible to set a global threshold for each custom poller created. It would be great to be able to assign a different value for each object associated to that custom poller.