Maintenance mode for Thin Clients

We can put a node into maintenance directly from Node details page

Interfaces can be set into maintenance directly from Interface details page

But in the case of Wireless Thin Access point(WAP), which will be monitored from WLC directly, we dont find a way to put into maintenance mode directly from console.

We looking forward for this feature , to set maintenance of AP directly from console.