

Send device vlan updates to network equipment

---

My idea is to update is to be able from a device detail page like a switch etc, be able to update a vlan on a port and apply that change to the Switch. This would help field techs and people who can't quickly or easily access a terminal session but can access solarwinds.