

Ability to export configuration file

---

I would like to submit the idea to have the ability to export the saved configuration file on NCM to a text file in the event that modifications need to be made and we have to console into the device so that we can upload locally to the device. Right now, I have to copy the entire configuration file and then paste it into a text document.